The AOTP – American Organization of Teachers of Portuguese advocates the study of the Portuguese language and the cultures of the Portuguese-speaking countries in the United States. Given the significance of speaking Portuguese in the world and the international cultural, economic, and political impact of the Portuguese-speaking countries, our mission is to promote the Portuguese language as a tool for communication in the United States and globally. As a professional organization, the AOTP represents Portuguese language teachers in k-12 school, higher education institutions and community schools. It supports the establishment and sustainability of quality Portuguese programs, the education and professional development of teachers of Portuguese, and promotes research relating to all aspects of teaching and learning the Portuguese language and about Portuguese-speaking cultures.

The Portuguese Language Journal (PLJ) is available to members of the AOTP in print and electronically. The AOTP is a nonprofit, non-governmental organization. It aims to enhance and promote the teaching of Portuguese in the United States and provide professional development to its members. PLJ was founded in 2006 to promote and improve the teaching of Portuguese as a world language. PLJ also aims to provide a venue to encourage collaboration, research, and exchange of ideas among Portuguese language instructors.

Portuguese Language Journal (ISSN #1942-0986) is the official journal of the AOTP – American organization of Teachers of Portuguese.
